

Addressing the Affordable Housing Crisis

IT'S A MATTER OF SUPPLY AND DEMAND

Community Meeting Co-hosted by Alameda County Supervisor Lena Tam & Alameda Mayor Marilyn Ezzy Ashcraft

- Hear from Michelle Starratt, Housing Director, Alameda County Housing & Community Development Department, about a $10 to $20 billion nine-county affordable housing bond being proposed for the November 2024 ballot.
- If approved by the voters, the regional bond would provide billions of dollars to construct thousands of affordable homes to house hundreds of thousands of residents over the coming decades.
