

CITY OF ALAMEDA ORDINANCE NO. _____
New Series

AMENDING THE ALAMEDA MUNICIPAL CODE BY (A) ADDING ARTICLE XV TO CHAPTER VI CONCERNING (1) REVIEW OF RENT INCREASES APPLICABLE TO ALL RENTAL UNITS AND RENT STABILIZATION APPLICABLE TO CERTAIN RENTAL UNITS AND (2) LIMITATIONS ON EVICTIONS AND THE PAYMENT OF RELOCATION ASSISTANCE APPLICABLE TO ALL RENTAL UNITS; (B) AMENDING SECTION 2-23.4 CONCERNING THE DUTIES OF THE RENT REVIEW ADVISORY COMMITTEE AND (C) SUSPENDING IN ITS ENTIRETY ARTICLE XIV OF CHAPTER VI IN ITS ENTIRETY

WHEREAS, for more than a year, community members have reported (a) to the City Council at City Council meetings, (b) to the City Council in written communications, (c) to the Rent Review Advisory Committee and (d) to and through the press that in the City there have been substantial increases in rent and there have been a substantial number of terminations of tenancies without cause; and

WHEREAS, in response, the City Council directed City staff to present to the Council various tenant protection policy options, including strengthening the City's rent review procedures using the Rent Review Advisory Committee, or adopting rent control/stabilization and/or just cause eviction policies; and

WHEREAS, community members also reported that the City Council's discussion and direction to study rent control and just cause eviction policy options have created market uncertainty and concern among some property owners that if they did not immediately increase rents and/or take action to terminate tenancies without just cause, they could face a loss of income and/or loss of property value; and

WHEREAS, on November 4, 2015, City staff presented to the City Council a number of alternative tenant protection policies including rent control and/or just cause eviction regulations and the City Council considered an urgency ordinance regarding rent control, just cause eviction and other tenant protections; and

WHEREAS, according to the 2008-2012 Comprehensive Housing Affordability Strategy (CHAS) data, 2,975 very low-income renter households in Alameda pay more than half of their incomes for housing and are at risk of displacement; and

WHEREAS, according to Real-Answers (Third Quarter, 2015), the average monthly rent for market-rate units of apartment buildings with fifty or more units in the City of Alameda has increased by 52% between 2011 and 2015; and

WHEREAS, the City's rental units are almost fully occupied with a 1.4% average vacancy rate (as of 2013) compared to a Countywide average vacancy rate of 3.8%, and the 1.4% vacancy rate is so low that there is not enough available supply to offer meaningful choice in the rental market; and

WHEREAS, between 2000 and 2013, median household income for those who rent in the City of Alameda increased by 29%, which has not kept pace with rising rents that increased by 54% over the same 13-year period, and has created a growing “affordability gap” between incomes and rents; and

WHEREAS, given this increased housing cost burden faced by many City of Alameda residents, excessive rental increases threaten the public health, safety, and welfare of the City’s residents, including seniors, those on fixed incomes, those with very low-, low-, or moderate-incomes, and those with other special needs, to the extent that such persons may be forced to choose between paying rent and providing food, clothing, and medical care for themselves and their families; and

WHEREAS, prior to November 5, 2015, the City of Alameda did not restrict rental increases nor have any limitations on evictions; and

WHEREAS, on November 5, 2015, the City Council adopted Ordinance No. 3140 as an urgency ordinance imposing within the City a temporary moratorium (65 days) on rent increases of 8% or more (on a cumulative basis over a twelve month period) for certain residential rental units and imposing within the City a temporary moratorium (65 days) on any action to terminate a tenancy except for “just cause”, the grounds of which were identified in Exhibit A to Ordinance 3140; and

WHEREAS, on November 5, 2015, the City Council directed staff to present to it at the Council’s January 5, 2016 meeting proposed ordinances that would (a) revise and strengthen the City’s current rent review procedures using the Rent Review Advisory Committee but include limitations on evictions and require relocation assistance for certain evictions and (b) impose rent stabilization regulations, limit evictions and require relocation assistance for certain evictions; and

WHEREAS, because the public peace, health and safety did not appear to be adequately protected by the rent control and other rent stabilization measures that the City Council adopted in Ordinance 3140 (including Exhibit A) due to the omission of certain protections concerning the grounds for just cause evictions, on December 1, 2015, the City Council amended Ordinance 3140 by adopting Ordinance No. 3143 on an urgency basis; and

WHEREAS, the City Clerk published and posted a notice of a public hearing for the City Council’s regular meeting on January 5, 2016 for the purposes of considering these ordinances or other tenant protection measures; and

WHEREAS, on January 5, 2016, the City Council heard more than five hours of testimony from members of the public concerning the proposed ordinances and thereafter the City Council deliberated for another three and half hours; and

WHEREAS, after such deliberation, the City Council reached consensus on some, but not all, elements of the proposed ordinances and therefore directed staff to draft a new ordinance based on the consensus reached and to return a proposed ordinance to the City Council on February 16, 2016 for further Council consideration; and

WHEREAS, the moratorium ordinances that the City Council had adopted in November 2015 and December 2015 (Ordinance Nos. 3140 and 3143, respectively) were set to expire on January 9, 2016, and therefore the City Council on January 5, 2016 adopted an urgency ordinance (Ordinance No. 3144) extending the moratorium to March 9, 2016; and

WHEREAS, following the City Council meeting on January 5, 2016, City staff prepared and provided to the Council certain "Principles of Agreement" that were intended to reflect those items on which the City Council had reached consensus and those items on which the Council had not; and

WHEREAS, City staff determined that it would be in the best interest of the public for the City Council to discuss those Principles of Agreement at the Council's regular meeting on February 2, 2016 so that staff would have clear direction from the Council as to what elements it wanted included in the draft ordinance to be presented to the Council on February 16, 2016; and

WHEREAS, the City Council on February 2, 2016, received a staff report on the Principles of Agreement, took public comment thereon, deliberated among themselves as to what elements should be in a draft ordinance and then provided direction to staff concerning the draft ordinance; and

WHEREAS, the City Clerk published and posted a notice of public hearing for the City Council's regular meeting on February 16, 2016 for the purpose of considering a draft ordinance concerning rent stabilization, limiting evictions and other tenant protection measures; and

WHEREAS, the City Council has considered the information and reports in its agenda packets dated November 4, 2015, December 1, 2015, January 5, 2016, February 2, 2016 and February 16, 2016, and public testimony received at its meetings of November 4, 2015, December 1, 2015, January 5, 2016, February 2, 2016 and February 16, 2016; and

WHEREAS, the City Council finds and determines that if an ordinance limiting the percentages and frequency of rent increases were not enacted now, as to those rental units to which the City may impose such limitations, the public peace, health and safety will be threatened because ~~housing provider~~landlords will have an immediate incentive to increase rents thereby (a) imposing an undue burden on the finances of many Alameda residents and (b) compelling such residents either to pay the increased rent or face the choice, due to a critically low vacancy factor, of either finding housing elsewhere and at a higher rent or not paying for food, clothing and medical care for themselves and their families; and

WHEREAS, the City Council finds and determines that if an ordinance limiting the grounds for evictions without cause were not enacted now, the public peace, health and safety will be threatened because ~~housing provider~~landlords will have an immediate incentive to serve termination of tenancy without cause notices thereby displacing many tenants in the City who, because of a critically low vacancy factor in the City, will be compelled to find housing elsewhere and at a higher rent; and

WHEREAS, the City Council finds and determines that if an ordinance compelling the payment of relocation assistance to certain displaced tenants were not enacted now, the public peace, health or safety will be threatened because tenants who are displaced through no fault of their own may not have the financial wherewithal to pay for relocation costs, such as a first and last month's rent at a different rental unit and for moving expenses, thereby causing significant economic hardship to those tenants; and

WHEREAS, the City Council likewise recognizes that property owners have the right to receive a fair, just and reasonable return on their properties and that this ordinance provides a process that protects and satisfies those rights; and

WHEREAS, it is also the purpose and intent of this ordinance to prohibit any unlawful acts concerning rental housing because of a person's actual or perceived race, color, ancestry, national origin, place of birth, sex, age, religion, creed, disability, sexual orientation, gender identity, weight, height or source of income (including all lawful sources of income, deposits and rental assistance from any federal, State, local or non-profit administered benefit or subsidy program); and

WHEREAS, adoption of this ordinance is exempt from review under the California Environmental Quality Act (CEQA) pursuant to the following, each a separate and independent basis: CEQA Guidelines, Section 15378 and Section 15061(b)(3) (no significant environmental impact).

NOW, THEREFORE, THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF ALAMEDA DOES ORDAIN AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1: Article XV is hereby added to Chapter VI of the Alameda Municipal Code to read as follows:

In addition to all other information that the Housing ProviderLandlord must provide to a Tenant in a Rental Unit in the notice of the availability of rent review procedures established by this Article, if the rent increase is at or below the Maximum Increase, the notice of the availability of rent review procedures shall state:

"NOTICE: Under Civil Code, section 827 (b), a Housing ProviderLandlord must provide a Tenant with 30 days' notice prior to a Rent Increase of 10% or less and must provide a Tenant with 60 days' notice of a Rent Increase greater than 10%. Because your Housing ProviderLandlord proposes a Rent Increase that is at or below the Maximum Increase (as defined in subsection P of Section 6-58.15 of the Alameda Municipal Code), under Article XV of Chapter VI of the Alameda Municipal Code your Housing ProviderLandlord must at the same time provide this Notice that advises you of the availability of the City's rent review procedures.

You may request the City's Rent Review Advisory Committee to review the increase by submitting in writing a request for review within 15 calendar days of your receipt of the notice of the Rent Increase either by mailing the request to the Program Administrator, 701 Atlantic Avenue, Alameda, CA 94501, or emailing the request to the Program Administrator at rrac@alamedahsq.org. You must submit along with your request a copy of the notice of the Rent Increase. If you do not submit a request within 15 calendar days, the Committee will not have the authority to review the Rent Increase.

If you submit such a request, the Program Administrator will advise you of the date, time and place of the hearing concerning the Committee's review of the Rent Increase. If you and your Housing ProviderLandlord agree reach agreement as to the Rent Increase before the hearing, you and your Housing ProviderLandlord must provide written confirmation to the Program Administrator concerning the terms of such agreement. If no agreement is reached, you and your Housing ProviderLandlord must appear before the Committee concerning the Rent Increase. If you fail to appear at the hearing, the Committee will not consider your request and you will be precluded from seeking further or additional review of the particular Rent Increase under the City's rent review procedures.

At the hearing, the Committee will make a decision concerning your request. You and your Housing ProviderLandlord may agree to accept the Committee's decision even though the Committee's decision will be non-binding on you and your Housing ProviderLandlord. If you and your Housing ProviderLandlord agree to a Rent Increase less than the Rent Increase your Housing ProviderLandlord requested and you have already paid the Rent Increase, your Housing ProviderLandlord must provide you with a refund or a credit against future rents.

It is illegal for a Housing ProviderLandlord to retaliate against a Tenant for the Tenant's lawfully and peacefully exercising his or her rights including a request for the Committee to review a Rent Increase. Civil Code, section 1942.5. A Housing ProviderLandlord's efforts to evict a Tenant within six months of a Tenant's requesting a hearing or otherwise participating in any way in the City's rent review process may be used as evidence of a retaliatory eviction."

6.58.65 Text of Notice When Rent Increase is Greater than the Maximum Increase.

In addition to all other information that the Housing ProviderLandlord is required to provide to a Tenant in a Rental Unit in the notice of availability of rent review procedures established by this Article, if the Rent Increase is greater than the Maximum Increase, the notice shall state:

"NOTICE: Under Civil Code, section 827 (b), a Housing ProviderLandlord must provide a Tenant with 30 days' notice prior to a Rent Increase of 10% or less and must provide a Tenant with 60 days' notice of a Rent Increase greater than 10%. Because your Housing ProviderLandlord proposes a Rent Increase that is greater than the Maximum Increase (as defined in subsection P of Section 6-58.15 of the Alameda Municipal Code), under Article XV of Chapter VI of the Alameda Municipal Code your Housing ProviderLandlord must at the same time provide this Notice that advises you that the Housing ProviderLandlord has requested the City's Rent Review Advisory Committee to review the Rent Increase. Unless you and your housing provider agree, the Rent Increase will not go into effect until the Committee reviews the Rent Increase.

If your Rental Unit is not exempt from certain provisions of the City's Rent Review, Rent Stabilization and Limitations on Evictions Ordinance, the Rent Increase will not go into effect until the Committee reviews the Rent Increase, unless you and your Landlord agree otherwise. If your Rental Unit is exempt from certain provisions of the City's Rent Review, Rent Stabilization and Limitations on Evictions Ordinance and if the effective date of the Rent Increase is before the date of the Committee's hearing, you must pay the Rent Increase. You will need to contact the Program Administrator (rrac@alamedahsq.org) as to whether your Rental Unit is or is not exempt from certain provisions of the City's Rent Review, Rent Stabilization and Limitations on Evictions Ordinance.

The City's Program Administrator (rrac@alamedahsq.org) will advise you of the date, time and place of the Committee's hearing concerning its rent review. If you and your Housing ProviderLandlord reach agreement as to the Rent Increase before the hearing, you and your Housing ProviderLandlord must provide written confirmation to the Program Administrator concerning the terms of such agreement. If no agreement is reached, you and your Housing ProviderLandlord must appear before the Committee concerning the Rent Increase. If you fail to appear at the hearing, the Committee will not consider the matter and you will be precluded from seeking further or additional review of the particular Rent Increase under the City's rent review procedures.

At the hearing, the Committee will make a decision concerning the Rent Increase. You and your Housing ProviderLandlord may agree to accept the Committee's decision. Depending on whether your Rental Unit is or is not exempt from certain provisions of the City of Alameda's Rent Review, Rent Stabilization and Limitations on Evictions Ordinance, the decision of the Committee may be non-binding or may become binding on you and your Housing ProviderLandlord.

6-58.90. A Party's Failure to Appear for the Hearing

Regardless of whether a Housing ProviderLandlord or a Tenant has requested the Committee to review the Rent Increase:

- A. If the Tenant appears at a noticed Committee hearing and the Committee finds the Housing ProviderLandlord failed to appear without notifying the Program Administrator prior to the hearing and providing a good reason for not appearing, the Rent Increase shall be void and the Housing ProviderLandlord shall neither take action to enforce such Rent Increase nor notice another Rent Increase for one year from the date the proposed rent increase was to become effective.

6-58.95 City Council Review of the Committee's Decision

- A. After the Committee has made its decision, if the Rental Unit is an exempt Rental Unit under Section 6-58.135, either the Tenant or the ~~Housing Provider~~Landlord may within seven calendar days following the Committee's decision request the City Council to review the decision by filing such request with the Program Administrator.

6-58.100. Petitions Filed by ~~Housing Provider~~Landlords Following the Committee's Decision

- A. Any ~~Housing Provider~~Landlord whose Rental Unit is not an exempt Rental Unit under Section 6-58.135 and who does not agree with the Committee's decision under Section 6-58.85 may initiate a hearing process by filing a petition with the Program Administrator provided that the ~~Housing Provider~~Landlord shall also notify in writing all Tenants subject to such proposed Rent Increase that the ~~Housing Provider~~Landlord has filed such petition. The ~~Housing Provider~~Landlord shall include with the petition a list of names and addresses of all such Tenants.
- B. Petitions must be filed on a form prescribed by the Program Administrator and must be accompanied by such supporting material as the Program Administrator shall prescribe including, but not limited to, a copy of the ~~Housing Provider~~Landlord's notice of the Rent Increase.

- D. Provided that a petition has been filed as provided in this Section 6-58.100, the Rent Increase shall not take effect until 60 days after a decision of a Hearing

Officer or, if that decision is judicially challenged, until there is a final judgment from a court of competent jurisdiction or other resolution, such as a settlement.

6-58.105 Petitions Filed by Tenants Following the Committee's Decision

- A. A Tenant whose Rental Unit is not an exempt Rental Unit under Section 6-58.135 and who does not agree with the Committee's decision under Section 6-58.85 may initiate a hearing process by filing a petition with the Program Administrator and notifying the Housing ProviderLandlord in writing that the Tenant has filed such petition.
- B. Petitions must be filed on forms as prescribed by the Program Administrator and must be accompanied by such supporting material as the Program Administrator shall prescribe including, but not limited to, a copy of the Housing ProviderLandlord's notice of the Rent Increase.
- C. A Tenant must file the petition and the prescribed documentation within 15 calendar days of the date of the Committee's decision. If a Tenant does not file the petition within 15 calendar days of the date of the Committee's decision, and if the Housing ProviderLandlord has not filed a petition under Section 6-58.100, the Committee's decision will be binding on the parties..
- D. Provided that a petition has been filed as provided in this Section 6-58.105, the Rent Increase shall not take effect until 60 days after a decision by the Hearing Officer or, if that decision is judicially challenged, until there is a final judgment from a court of competent jurisdiction or other resolution, such as a settlement.

6-58.110. Burden of Proof

The party who files the petition shall have the burden of proof. As to the burden of proof, the Hearing Officer will use the preponderance of evidence test, i.e. that what the petitioner is required to prove is more likely to be true than not and, after weighing all of the evidence, if the Hearing Officer cannot decide that something is more likely to be true than not true, the Hearing Officer must conclude that the petitioner did not prove it.

6-58.115. Hearing Process

- A. The Program Administrator shall assign a Rent Dispute Hearing Officer to decide any petition, including its timeliness and other procedural matters, which is filed under this Article.
- B. The Hearing Officer shall endeavor to hold the hearing within 30 days of the filing of the petition or within such time as the Hearing Officer and the parties may agree.
- C. The Hearing Officer shall conduct the hearing employing the usual procedures in administrative hearing matters, i.e., the proceeding will not be governed by the technical rules of evidence and any relevant evidence will be admitted. Hearsay evidence may be admitted solely for the purpose of supplementing or explaining other evidence.

- D. Any party may appear and offer such documents, testimony, written declarations, or other evidence as may be pertinent to the proceeding. Each party shall comply with the Hearing Officer's request for documents and information and shall comply with the other party's reasonable requests for documents and information. The Hearing Officer may proceed with the hearing notwithstanding that a party has failed to provide the documents or information requested by the Hearing Officer or a party has failed to provide documents or information requested by the other party. The Hearing Officer may take into consideration, however, the failure of a party to provide such documents or information.
- E. The hearing will be reported by a certified court reporter for purposes of judicial review.

6-58.120. Hearing – Findings and determination

Within 30 days of the close of the hearing, the Hearing Officer shall make a determination, based on the preponderance of evidence and applying the criteria set forth in Section 6-58.125, whether the proposed Rent Increase is reasonable under the circumstances or not, and shall make a written statement of decision upon which such determination is based. The Hearing Officer's allowance or disallowance of any Rent Increase or portion thereof may be reasonably conditioned in any manner necessary to effectuate the purposes of this Article. Copies of the statement of decision shall be served on the parties, the Program Administrator and the City.

6-58.125. Criteria to be applied to rent increases

In determining whether or not a Rent Increase is reasonable, the Hearing Officer shall take into account the purposes of this Article to eliminate imposing excessive Rent Increases while providing Housing Provider Landlords with a just and reasonable return on property, the non-exclusive factors that the Committee considered in making its decision as set forth in subsection B of Section 6-58.85, the existing market value of rents to Rental Units similarly situated, the vacancy rate in the building or complex in comparison to comparable buildings or complexes in the same general area, the physical condition of the Rental Unit or building/complex of which the Rental Unit is part, and the quality and quantity of maintenance and repairs to the Rental Unit or the building/complex of which the Rental Unit is part. The Hearing Officer shall not determine just and reasonable rate of return solely by the application of a fixed or mechanical accounting formula but there is a rebuttable presumption that maintenance of Net Operating Income for the Base Year, as adjusted by inflation over time, provides a Housing Provider Landlord with a just and reasonable rate of return on property.

6-58.130. Rent Dispute Hearing Officer's Decision—Final Unless Judicial Review is Sought

The Hearing Officer's decision shall be final and binding on the parties unless judicial review is sought within 60 days of the date of the Hearing Officer's decision.

6-58.135. Exemptions

The following Rental Units shall be exempt from the provisions of Sections 6-58.100, 6-58.105, 6-58.110, 6-58.115, 6-58.120, 6-58.125 and 6-58.130 but are subject to all other Sections of this Article: Rental Units constructed after February 1, 1995; Rental Units that are separately alienable from the title of any other dwelling (e.g., single family residences, condominiums, etc.); and any other Rental Units exempt under the Costa-Hawkins Rental Housing Act (California Civil Code, sections 1954.50 and following) or under any other applicable state or federal law.

Section 6-58.140. Evictions and Terminations of Tenancies

No Housing ProviderLandlord shall take action to terminate any tenancy including, but not limited to, making a demand for possession of a Rental Unit, threatening to terminate a tenancy, serving any notice to quit or other notice to terminate a tenancy, e.g. an eviction notice, bringing any action to recover possession or be granted possession of a Rental Unit except on one of the following grounds:

- A. Notice to Vacate. A Housing ProviderLandlord may terminate a tenancy under Civil Code, section 1946.1 (a termination of tenancy for "no cause") but the following provisions shall apply:
1. The Housing ProviderLandlord shall not impose on a new Tenant Rent that exceeds more than 5% of the amount of the Rent in effect at the time the Tenant was served with a Notice to Vacate, and the Housing ProviderLandlord shall inform the new Tenant in writing of the amount of the Rent that was in effect at the time the prior Tenant was served with a Notice to Vacate and that the Rent imposed on the new Tenant does not exceed the prior Rent by more than 5%.
  2. The Housing ProviderLandlord must provide to the Program Administrator a copy of the Notice to Vacate served on the Tenant and the amount of the Rent in effect at the time the Notice to Vacate was served and the amount of the Rent that the new Tenant will be charged.
  - ~~3. The Housing Provider must provide to the Program Administrator at the start of the new tenancy the name and contact information of the new Tenant, a copy of the lease (if applicable) and the amount of the Rent that the new Tenant will be charged.~~
  - ~~4.3.~~ Except for Rent Increases as provided in this Article, if it is determined the Housing ProviderLandlord imposes Rent on the new Tenant that exceeds that allowable under paragraph 1 of subsection A of this section 6-58.140, in addition to any other penalties or remedies available to the existing Tenant, the City or the previous Tenant, the Housing ProviderLandlord shall reduce the Rent to that allowable under paragraph 1 of subsection A of this Section 6-58.140 and shall reimburse the existing Tenant, plus interest as provided by law, the difference between the amount of the Rent that exceeded the allowable Rent under paragraph 1 of subsection A of this Section 6-58.140 and the Rent in effect when the previous Tenant was served with a Notice to Vacate, retroactive to the date when the excessive Rent was first paid.

5.4. As to any building or buildings with five or more Rental Units, a Housing ProviderLandlord may use this subsection A of Section 6-58.140 for no more than 10% of all Rental Units in any month, and no more than 25% of all Rental Units (rounded up to the nearest whole number if 0.5 or more or rounded down to the nearest whole number if 0.4 or less) in any consecutive twelve month period.

6.5. As to any building or buildings with no more than four Rental Units, a Housing ProviderLandlord may use this subsection A of Section 6-58-140 for only one rental unit in any consecutive twelve month period.

- B. Failure to pay rent. The Tenant upon proper notice has failed to pay the Rent to which the Housing ProviderLandlord is entitled under a written or oral agreement; provided, however, that the “failure to pay rent” shall not be cause for eviction if (i) the Tenant cures the failure to pay rent by tendering the full amount of the Rent due within the time frame in the notice but the Housing ProviderLandlord refuses or fails to accept the Rent or (ii) the Tenant tenders some or all of the Rent due and the Housing ProviderLandlord accepts some or all of the Rent.
- C. Breach of lease. The Tenant has continued, after the Housing ProviderLandlord has served the Tenant with a written notice to cease, to commit a material and substantial breach of an obligation or covenant of the tenancy other than the obligation to surrender possession upon proper notice, provided, however, that a Housing ProviderLandlord need not serve a written notice to cease if the breach is for conduct that is violent or physically threatening to the Housing ProviderLandlord, other Tenants or members of the Tenant’s household or neighbors.
1. Notwithstanding any contrary provision in this Section 6-58.140, a Housing ProviderLandlord shall not take action to terminate a tenancy as a result of the addition to the Rental Unit of a Tenant’s child, parent, grandchild, grandparent or spouse or domestic partner (as defined in California Family Code, section 297) of such relatives, or as a result of the addition of a spouse or domestic partner of the Tenant, so long as the number of occupants does not exceed the maximum number of occupants as determined under Section 503(b) of the Uniform Housing Code as incorporated by California Health and Safety Code, section 17922.
  2. Before taking any action to terminate a tenancy based on the violation of a lawful obligation or covenant of tenancy regarding subletting or limits on the number of occupants in the rental unit, the Housing ProviderLandlord shall serve the Tenant a written notice of the violation that provides the Tenant with the opportunity to cure the violation within 14 calendar days. The Tenant may cure the violation by making a written request to add occupants to which request the Housing ProviderLandlord reasonably concurs or by using other reasonable means, to which the Housing ProviderLandlord reasonably concurs, to cure the violation including, but not limited to, causing the removal of any additional or unapproved occupant.

- D. Nuisance. The Tenant has continued, after the Housing ProviderLandlord has served the Tenant with a written notice to cease, to commit or expressly permit a nuisance on the Rental Unit or to the common area of the rental complex, or to create a substantial interference with the comfort, safety or enjoyment of the Housing ProviderLandlord, other Tenants or members of a Tenant's household or neighbors, provided, however, a Housing ProviderLandlord need not serve a notice to cease if the Tenant's conduct is illegal activity, has caused substantial damage to the Rental Unit or the common area of the rental complex, or poses an immediate threat to public health or safety.
- E. Failure to give access. The Tenant has continued to refuse, after the Housing ProviderLandlord has served the Tenant with a written notice, to grant the Housing ProviderLandlord reasonable access to the Rental Unit for the purpose of inspection or of making necessary repairs or improvements required by law, for the purpose of showing the Rental Unit to any prospective purchaser or mortgagee, or for any other reasonable purpose as permitted or required by the lease or by law.
- F. Owner move-in. The Housing ProviderLandlord seeks in good faith to recover possession of the Rental Unit for use and occupancy as a primary residence by the Housing ProviderLandlord, or the Housing ProviderLandlord's spouse, domestic partner, children, parents, grandparents, grandchildren, brother, sister, father-in-law, mother-in-law, son-in-law, or daughter-in-law.
1. For purposes of this section a "Housing ProviderLandlord" shall only include a Housing ProviderLandlord that is a natural person who has at least a 50% ownership interest in the property and the Housing ProviderLandlord shall provide to the Program Administrator documentation that the Housing ProviderLandlord meets the definition of Housing ProviderLandlord as provided in this paragraph. For purposes of this paragraph, a "natural person" means a human being but may also include a living, family or similar trust where the natural person is identified in the title of the trust.
  2. No action to terminate a tenancy based on an "owner move-in" may take place if there is a vacant Rental Unit on the property and the vacant Rental Unit is comparable in size and amenities to the Rental Unit for which the action to terminate the tenancy is sought.
  3. The notice terminating the tenancy shall set forth the name and relationship to the Housing ProviderLandlord of the person intended to occupy the Rental Unit.

4. The Housing ProviderLandlord or the enumerated relative must intend in good faith to move into the Rental Unit within 60 days after the Tenant vacates and to occupy the Rental Unit as a primary residence for at least one year.
5. If the Housing ProviderLandlord or enumerated relative specified on the notice terminating the tenancy fails to occupy the Rental Unit within 60 days after the Tenant vacates or if the Housing ProviderLandlord or enumerated relative vacates the Rental Unit without good cause before occupying the Rental Unit for one year, the Housing ProviderLandlord shall:
  - a) Offer the Rental Unit to the Tenant who vacated it and at the same Rent that was in effect at the time the Tenant vacated the Rental Unit; and
  - b) Pay to the Tenant all reasonable and documented expenses incurred in moving to and from the Rental Unit, to the extent such expenses exceed the relocation assistance the Housing ProviderLandlord has already paid to the Tenant as provided in Section 6-58.150.
- G. Demolition. The Housing ProviderLandlord seeks in good faith to take action to terminate a tenancy to demolish the Rental Unit and remove the property permanently from residential rental housing use; provided, however, the Housing ProviderLandlord shall not take any action to terminate such tenancy until the Housing ProviderLandlord has obtained all necessary and proper demolition and related permits from the City.
- H. Capital Improvement Plan. The Housing ProviderLandlord seeks in good faith to take action to terminate a tenancy in order to carry out an approved Capital Improvement Plan.
- I. Withdrawal from the rental market. The Housing ProviderLandlord seeks in good faith to take action to terminate a tenancy by filing with the Program Administrator the requisite documents to initiate the process to withdraw the Rental Unit from rent or lease under Government Code, section 7060 et seq. with the intent of completing the withdrawal process and going out of the residential rental business permanently.
- J. Compliance with a governmental order. The Housing ProviderLandlord seeks in good faith to take action to terminate a tenancy to comply with a government agency's order to vacate, or any other order that necessitates the vacating of the building, Housing or Rental Unit as a result of a violation of the City of Alameda's Municipal Code or any other provision of law.
  - a. The Housing ProviderLandlord shall offer the Rental Unit to the Tenant who vacated the Rental Unit when the Housing ProviderLandlord has satisfied the conditions of the governmental agency that caused the governmental agency to order the Rental Unit vacated and at the same Rent that was in effect at the time the Tenant vacated the Rental Unit.

- b. The ~~Housing Provider~~Landlord shall pay to the Tenant all reasonable expenses incurred in vacating the Rental Unit, as provided in Section 6-58.150 and all reasonable and documented expenses incurred in moving into the Rental Unit should the Tenant do so.

6-58.150. Required Payment of a Relocation Fee.

- A. If the ~~Housing Provider~~Landlord has taken any action to terminate a tenancy on the grounds set forth in subsections A, F, G, H, I or J of Section 6-58.140, the ~~Housing Provider~~Landlord shall pay a relocation fee in an amount of one month's Rent, as averaged over the twelve months preceding the serving of the notice to vacate, for each year, or portion thereof, to a maximum of four months' Rent if the tenant has lived in the Rental Unit for four or more years, plus $1500. The $1500 will be adjusted on January 1 of each year based in the change of the Consumer Price Index from the previous January 1.
- B. The ~~Housing provider~~Landlord shall pay the relocation fee as follows:
  - 1. The entire fee shall be paid to a Tenant who is the only Tenant in the Rental Unit and if the Rental Unit is occupied by two or more Tenants, then each Tenant who is on the lease or has financial responsibility to pay the Rent shall be paid a pro-rata share of the relocation fee; provided, however, if a Tenant or Tenants receive, as part of the eviction, relocation assistance from a governmental agency, then the amount of that relocation assistance shall operate as a credit against any relocation fee to be paid to the Tenant(s) under this subsection 6-58.150.
  - 2. After taking into account any adjustments in the amount of the relocation fee under subsection C of Section 6-58.150, the ~~Housing Provider~~Landlord shall pay one half of the applicable relocation fee when the Tenant has informed the ~~Housing Provider~~Landlord in writing of the date when the Tenant will vacate the Rental Unit and the other half upon certification that the Tenant has vacated the Rental Unit on the date provided in the notice, as permissibly extended by subsection C of Section 6-58.150.
- C. Notwithstanding subsection A of Section 6-58.150, as to any Rental Unit to be vacated under subsections A, G or I of Section 6-58.140, a Tenant has the choice to remain in the Rental Unit, starting from the eviction date in the notice to vacate, an additional month for every year, or portion thereof, up to a maximum of four months if the Tenant has lived in the Rental Unit for four or more years, but the ~~Housing Provider~~Landlord's requirement to pay the relocation fee will be reduced by one month's Rent for every month, or portion thereof, the Tenant remains in the Rental Unit beyond the date on which the Tenant was required to vacate.
- D. Nothing provided herein prohibits a ~~Housing Provider~~Landlord and a Tenant from agreeing to relocation assistance different than as provided in this Section, provided the ~~Housing Provider~~Landlord and Tenant provide to the Program Administrator written proof of the alternative relocation assistance within 21 days of the Tenant's vacating the Rental Unit.

6-58.155. Service and Contents of the Written Notices to Terminate a Tenancy

- A. In any notice purporting to terminate a tenancy the ~~Housing Provider~~Landlord shall state in the notice the cause for the termination, if any.
- B. If the cause for terminating the tenancy is for the grounds in subsections B, C, D or E of Section 6-58.140 and a notice to cease is required, the notice shall also inform the Tenant that the failure to cure may result in the initiation of an action to terminate the tenancy; such notice shall also include sufficient details allowing a reasonable person to comply and defend against the accusation.
- C. If the cause for terminating the tenancy is for the grounds in subsections A, F, G, H, I or J of Section 6-58.140, the notice shall also inform the Tenant that the Tenant is entitled to a relocation fee in the amount then in effect.
- D. If the cause for terminating the tenancy is for the grounds in subsection H of Section 6-58.140, the notice shall state the ~~Housing Provider~~Landlord has complied with that subsection by obtaining a City approved Capital Improvement Plan and a copy of the approved Capital Improvement Plan shall accompany the notice.
- E. The ~~Housing Provider~~Landlord shall file with the Program Administrator within seven calendar days after having served any notice required by Section 6-58.140 a copy of such notice.

6-58.160. Retaliation Prohibited.

No ~~Housing Provider~~Landlord shall take any action to terminate a tenancy, reduce any Housing Services or increase the Rent where the ~~Housing Provider~~Landlord's intent is to retaliate against the Tenant (i) for the Tenant's assertion or exercise of rights under this Article or under state or federal law, (ii) for the Tenant's request to initiate, or the tenant's participation in, the rent review procedures under this Article or (iii) for the Tenant's participation in litigation arising out of this Article. Such retaliation may be a defense to an action to recover the possession of a Rental Unit and/or may serve as the basis for an affirmative action by the Tenant for actual and punitive damages and/or injunctive relief as provided herein. In an action against the Tenant to recover possession of a Rental Unit, evidence of the assertion or exercise by the Tenant of rights under this Article or under state or federal law within 180 days prior to the alleged act or retaliation shall create a rebuttable presumption that the ~~Housing Provider~~Landlord's act was retaliatory; provided, however, a Tenant may assert retaliation affirmatively or as a defense to the ~~Housing Provider~~Landlord's action without the presumption regardless of the period of time that has elapsed between the Tenant's assertion or exercise of rights under this Article and the alleged action of retaliation.
