Alameda City Attorney's Office

Termination of Local Emergency

Current Considerations Affecting Terminating or Continuing Local Emergency Declaration

Since March 2020, the City Council has taken numerous actions to protect the health of Alameda residents and our local businesses. Some of the same policy actions are presented for the Council's consideration of whether to terminate the local emergency:

- Business Protections
- Operational Impacts
- Remote meetings
- Rent Control Protections

Business Protections

- Under AMC § 6-62.1 et seq., the Council capped delivery service charges to restaurants at 15%.
- Cap is tied to duration of local emergency.
- If local emergency terminates, amend AMC § 6-62.1 et seq to sunset with termination of state emergency.
- Governor announced he is lifting the state emergency, which remains in place until February 28, 2023.

Operational Impacts

- Ordinances 3267 and 3272 authorized City Manager to:
 - Suspend competitive bidding; and
 - Spend up to $2 million to address local and operational impacts.
 - These authorities will terminate.
- Request authorization to permit City Manager, and the City Attorney for City Attorney staff, to continue permitting remote and/or flexible work schedules and redeployment of affected staff, consistent with applicable laws, Council directions, and labor agreements.
- Unused COVID-19 administrative leave authorized by Ordinance 3267 will be moved to an administrative leave bank for each applicable employee.

Remote Meetings

- AB 361
- Sunshine Ordinance (Ordinance 3271)
 - Sunset provision tied to local emergency
- If local emergency terminates, Council has authority until February 28, 2023 to meet remotely under AB 361 with technical amendments to Ord. 3271 to conform to state law.

Rent Control Protections

- Alameda's Eviction Moratorium
- Banked Rent Increases
- Unpaid Rent Deferral and Repayment Time Frames
- Deferred Payment Agreements
- Utility Shutoffs
- State Law Provisions
- Alameda County's Eviction Moratorium

Alameda County's Eviction Moratorium

- Alameda County's eviction moratorium remains in effect until 60 days after County Public Health Emergency ends.
- Prohibits all evictions with few exceptions.
 - 12 months to repay overdue rent
 - All unpaid rent is consumer debt and not grounds for eviction
- The City's position has been County laws/regulations generally do not apply in incorporated cities, including the City of Alameda. See Cal. Const., art. XI, § 7, City of South San Francisco v. Berry (1953) 120 Cal.App.2d 252, 253.

Summary of Staff Recommendation

- Adopt a resolution terminating the local emergency in response to the COVID-19 pandemic, consistent with Government Code Section 8630(d).
- Adopt an uncoded ordinance repealing ordinances to effectuate termination of local emergency, including preserving certain administrative authorities allowing for remote work and remote meetings until AB 361 is rescinded (February 28, 2023).
- Introduce ordinance amending sunset provision of Third Party Food Delivery Services 15% fee cap to coincide with State's termination of emergency.
