Dear Members of the Alameda Public Art Committee

I am writing as an Alameda resident (12 1/2 years) and photographer for the 2013 Alameda Haunt Your House contest. I would love to see this project awarded a grant from the city as it is a unique expression of the creativity and the community oriented nature of our city.

Alameda residents as well as those from out of town look forward to the holiday every year, and the decorations and art installations that people create to make the autumn season festive and joyful. I feel very fortunate to live in a town that is so focused on the spirit of community, and the way we celebrate Halloween is one of the many ways in which I am reminded of the magic of our island city.

This year in particular, I feel that the community really needs this event to lift the spirits of those who live in Alameda, and those who come to town for a safe and magical experience for their little ones. Please consider AHYH as a deserving recipient for the public arts grant.

Thank you,
Neysa Budzinski
