

Introduction of Ordinance to Approve Lease for a Retail Space at the Historic Alameda Theater (2315 Central Avenue) with Shear Terror, (dba It'll Do) a California LLC

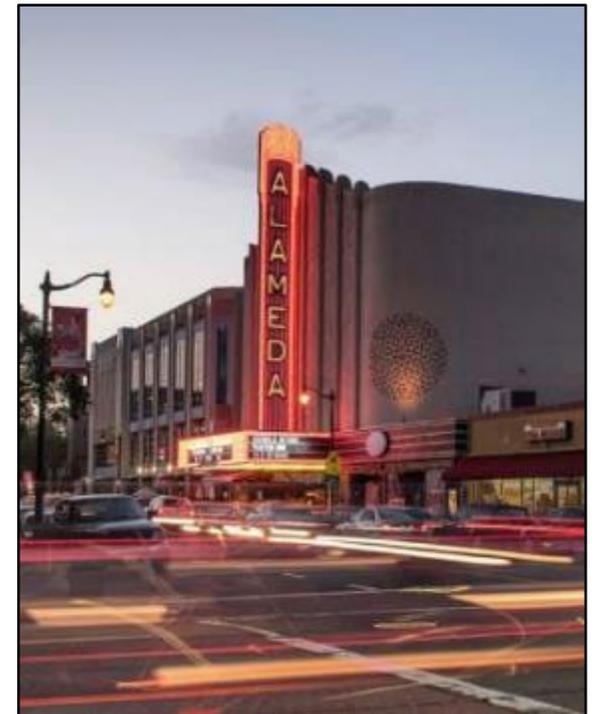

October 1, 2024

Retail Space at Alameda Theater

The Historic Alameda Theater opened in 1932, in an Art Deco style

- Designed by the renowned theater architect, Timothy L. Pflueger
- In 2006, the City undertook a major theater restoration project
- The Theater building has always included a variety of axillary uses in the retail suites along Central Avenue
- This particular suite was most recently occupied by a wine shop, which closed earlier this year

Leased Premises

- The leased space is separate from the Theater with its entrance from the public street
- Includes approximately 700 SF & a single-stall, all-gender restroom
- Lease premises do not include any designated parking areas or exterior uses
- The business will need to apply for all required permits for proposed interior improvements
- No exterior improvements contemplated beyond inserting signage in the existing fixture

It'll Do – Barber Shop

It'll Do, is a local barber shop, has been in business in Alameda since 2019 and specializes in precision haircuts, beard trims and shaves.

- Fills a vacancy in a key location with a unique business that has a proven track record and has built a strong local customer base that will follow them to the new space
- The shop will have an eclectic style with a mix retro furnishing & modern color schemes
- It'll Do offers haircuts and dry beard trims
- Plan to add back straight razor shave & wet beard trim services to their menu next year
- Current hours of operation are Tuesday - Saturday from 10 am to 7 pm, with two chairs but plan to expand in the new space

It'll do.

Lease Terms

- Use: Barber shop, including retail sales of hair and grooming products
- Premises: 700 SF of interior space, no exterior use
- Term: 63-month initial term (5 years + 3 mos.), & one (1) 5-year renewal option
- Monthly Rent: $1,645 or $2.35 PSF w/ annual 4% increases

Months	Monthly Rent	Annual Rent
