

City of Alameda Transportation Commission Resolution Recognizing the Service of Tina Yuen

WHEREAS, the City of Alameda is an island community with a unique combination of transportation options and challenges; and

WHEREAS, the Transportation Commission advises the City Council on City transportation plans, policies, programs, and capital projects; and

WHEREAS, in 2019, Tina Yuen was appointed by the Mayor and the City Council to serve on the Transportation Commission, and she served for five years, including serving as the Vice Chair; and

WHEREAS, Tina Yuen helped the Transportation Commission prioritize equity, public engagement, and active transportation needs, and brought an important public health perspective to transportation issues; and

WHEREAS, during Tina Yuen's tenure, the Transportation Commission helped shape, and ultimately endorsed, the Vision Zero Action Plan (2021) and Active Transportation Plan (2022), which will influence Alameda transportation for years to come; and

WHEREAS, during Tina Yuen's tenure, the Transportation Commission helped shape, and ultimately endorsed, design concepts for corridor improvements on streets including Otis Dr, Central Ave, Clement Ave, Lincoln Ave, and more; and

WHEREAS, Tina Yuen shared her knowledge and insights with the Transportation Commission, working to ensure that Alameda has the best transportation system possible.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, THE MEMBERS OF THE ALAMEDA TRANSPORTATION COMMISSION, Samantha Soules, Drew Dara-Abrams, Geoffrey Johnson, Alysha Nachtigall, Saravana Suthanthira, and Scott Weitze do hereby extend gratitude and appreciation for the commitment, dedication, and service of Tina Yuen to the Transportation Commission and the community members of Alameda.
