

Exhibit 1: Summary of Awarded Public Art, 2020-2021

Artwork	Artist	Grant Amount/ Est. Artwork Cost	Approximate Location	Description	Status
Public Art Fund Grants
Rockspinners	Zach Coffin	$150,000	East end of Jean Sweeney Park	The two Rockspinners will be multi-ton boulders, which can be spun easily and silently with a single push.	In fabrication; installation expected for early 2022
Gateway Columns	Norman Moore	$61,500	West end of Jean Sweeney Park	Serves as a metaphor for the island of Alameda as the original gateway for prospectors heading to hold country.	Completed April 2021
Love Our Island Art Walk	Rhythmix Cultural Works	$25,000	Park and Webster Streets	The Love Our Island Art Walk is an art-centric creative placemaking project.	Completed
Egret Mural*	Dan Fontes	$14,000	1925 Everett Street	Located in a largely industrial area, the Egret mural reveals the natural ecosystem located just one block away at the Oakland Estuary, and the native wildlife which frequents the channel.	Ready for installation

Tidelands Fund Grant
Calimar	Rossella Scapini	$150,000	Near the Water Emergency Transportation Authority (WETA) Maintenance Facility on Alameda Point	Depicts a squid with tentacles working as arches and columns, allowing people to walk between the inner and outer space they create.	Projected to be complete the end of November 2021. Work is being done as of the writing of this report.
On-Site Public Art
Diatom Sculpture Series	Adrien Segel	$170,000	Near 1310 Harbor Bay Parkway	Eight sculptures installed at four locations reflect the microscopic life forms in the marine environment that surrounds Bay Farm Island.	Completed August 2021
Alameda Afore	Rodrigo Nava	$100,000	Main and Atlantic	A gateway feature for Alameda Point; shapes are evocative of the bow of a ship or the A in Alameda and its material is a nod to the area's industrial past.	Installation anticipated for end of 2021
Beken	Dewitt Godfrey	$200,000	Alameda Point Waterfront Park	The artwork resembles lighthouses, channel buoys and frontier guard towers but is transparent to invite entry.	Installation anticipated for spring 2022
Tidal Arch	Adrien Segel	$403,000	1951 Harbor Bay Parkway	Taking inspiration from the tide charts, Tidal arch is intended to give physical presence to the dynamic natural forces at play in the marine landscape.	Under PAC review for change in scale

*Formerly the "Astro" Mural, the PAC recommended and City Council approved a new location and design, after the owners of the location originally proposed for the mural chose not to move forward.
