

Proposed Changes to the Public Art Ordinance and Expenditure of Public Art Funds

Tuesday, October 4, 2016

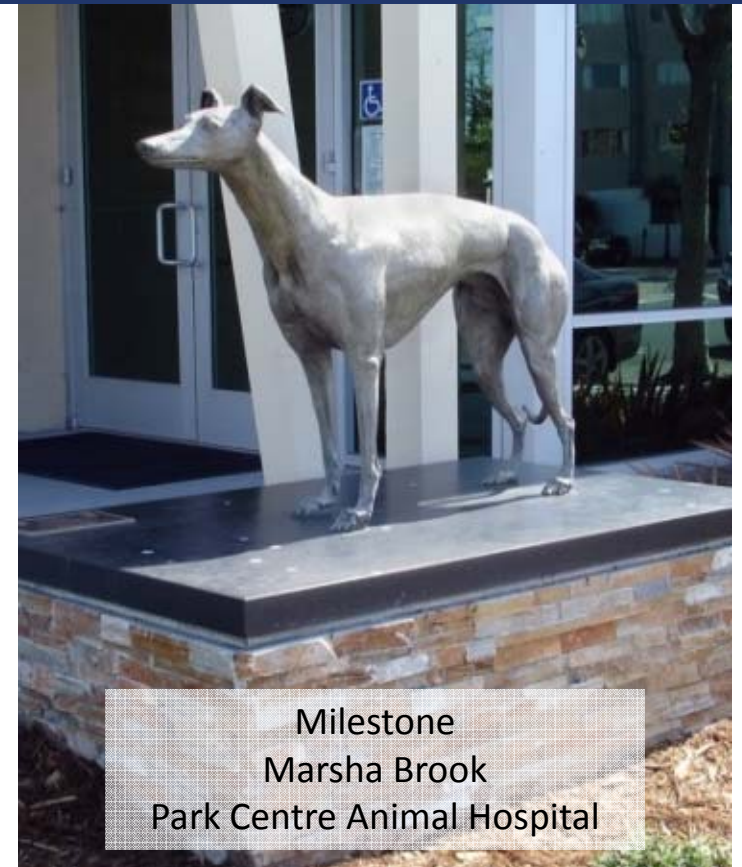

Public Art Ordinance Overview

- Adopted in 2003
- Requires major development projects to include public art on-site or contribute an in-lieu fee to the Public Art Fund
- Balance of Public Art Fund: $224,276 (August, 2016)

Proposed Changes to Ordinance

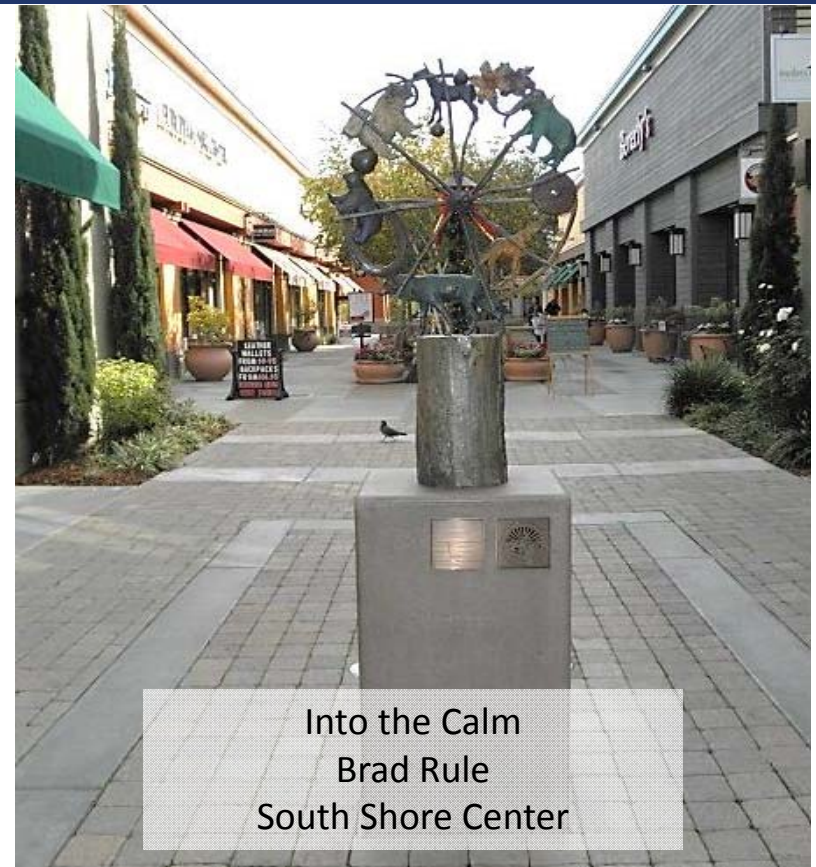

- Increase the cap on maximum public art expenditure from $150,000 to $500,000
- Expand allowable uses of the Public Art Fund to include grants to non-profit arts and cultural organizations
- Lower the cap on administrative costs incurred by third party art providers from 25 to 20%

Milestone
Marsha Brook
Park Centre Animal Hospital

Proposed Changes to Ordinance

- Change reporting to coincide with biennial budget cycle and minimize administrative expenses
- Clarify the physical art forms that meet the on-site art requirement
- Remove requirement that public art focus on historic or maritime traditions

Expenditure of Public Art Funds

75% of funds are allocated to physical art and 25% to cultural arts and arts programming

- $50,000 for public art installation
- $50,000 for cultural arts and arts programming
- $100,000 for public art in the Jean Sweeney Open Space Park

Nautilus
Jill Turman
Grand Marina

Expenditure of Public Art Funds

- Public Art Commission to meet and discuss RFP evaluation process and criteria
- Issue RFP, including:
 - $50,000 for public art installation
 - $50,000 for cultural arts and arts programming
- Proposals brought to the Public Art Commission for evaluation, ranking and award

Bright Ideas
Delaine Hackney
Perforce Software

Expenditure of Public Art Funds

- Recreation and Parks Department issue an RFP for public art in Jean Sweeney Park
- Proposals brought to the Public Art Commission for evaluation, ranking and award.

