"I'm kinda not a Democrat, does that matter?" Daysog responded in the email. "I'm still registered, but kinda feeling more like an independent, even a MODERATE REPUBLICAN now and then (though I'm not sure if that bird even exists anymore)." said Daysog.

...a long time council member who often touts himself as a voice of the voiceless and defender of the defenseless. Daysog's performance bordered on the irrational; he misstated facts and used irrelevant data to discredit city staff's recommendation. It was a clumsy effort at finding a problem when there was none. One was left wondering why? Let's not forget, Daysog recently supported building a multi-story hotel, less than quarter mile down the road, in closer proximity to the airport. Why should the needs of hotel owners be prioritized over the needs of those who have lived in, and served, our community for years?

"Providing housing for homeless vets, families and victims of domestic violence was a key provision in the City receiving the land formerly owned by the federal government.

So two weeks ago, I was particularly concerned to hear Tony Daysog urge city staff to renege on commitments that the council has made to APC in supporting community plans for upgrading the facilities that APC's families currently live in."

LET'S MAKE A GOOD VOTE AND VOTE TONY DAYSOG OUT!
