

Addressing Homelessness in Alameda

Survey Results, Case Management Services and the Homeless Action Plan

Steps Taken So Far

- Initial steps taken to address homelessness in Alameda, including Jean Sweeney Open Space Park:
 - Survey assessment by Operation Dignity Mobile Outreach Team.
 - Community meeting attend by over 80 neighbors and homeless people.
 - Social Services and Human Relations Board (SSHRRB) – reviewed and made recommendations on the Homeless Action Plan.
 - Homeless Action Plan Committee – representatives from Alameda Point Collaborative, Operation Dignity, SSHRRB, Police Dept, Recreation and Parks Dept, Community Development Dept.
 - Already having an impact, connecting people with housing services.

Initial Survey Assessment Results

- Mobile outreach team engaged with homeless individuals during a 6-week period (late Sept – early Nov).
- 33 individuals were identified, all of whom are currently residing at Sweeney Park. Other encampments have been posted and cleaned up, such as below the Fruitvale and Park St. Bridges.
- All but 3 expressed interest in Case Management Services and all reported being interested in housing.
- 5 reported being veterans.
