SUMMARY REPORT OF ACTIVITIES FOR THE WEST ALAMEDA BUSINESS IMPROVEMENT AREA FISCAL YEAR JULY 1, 2017 – JUNE 30, 2018

INTRODUCTION

West Alameda Business Association's (WABA) mission is to promote West Alameda with activities and marketing which will generate more foot traffic, increase sales and sales tax revenue, promote members' businesses and increase the public goodwill and atmosphere in West Alameda. We seek to use these activities to increase the vitality of Webster Street and West Alameda as well as to preserve Webster Street Business District's historic character.

The Webster Street's Business Improvement Area (BIA) is the major source of funding for these activities. WABA will continue its current activities and implement others that follow the Main Street Four-Point Approach established by the National Trust for Historic Preservation.

It is estimated that there will be no carry forward from the 2016-2017 budget. The BIA revenue for 2017-18 is $80,000. The method and basis of levying the BIA fees are detailed in the Webster BIA fee schedule.

BANNER PROGRAM EXPANSION

Webster Street's BIA district boundaries includes the commercial area of Webster Street, Alameda Landing, and surrounding area to create a unified marketing program for West Alameda. In past years, a street banner program for Webster Street from Atlantic to Central Avenues, which was managed by WABA and paid for from BIA revenue, unified the area as a shopping and destination district as part of WABA's marketing efforts for the district.

Webster Street's street banner program is to create a consistent look and feel thereby promoting "Shop West Alameda" within both shopping districts along Webster Street and Willie Stargell Avenue. During the 2014-15 holiday season, WABA began a phased approach to increasing the banner program by the addition of holiday banners in front of Mariner Square Athletic Club and Aquatech, both businesses along the northern end of Webster Street. During the 2015-16, WABA continued this expansion by installing seasonal banners along the northernmost end of Webster. During the 2016-17, WABA expanded the banner program to include summer holiday decoration of U.S. flags along Webster Street, Willie Stargell Avenue, and 5th Street.

ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT COMMITTEE

- Facilitate development of high-potential properties
- Work with the City and local realtors to generate leads and attract appropriate businesses
- Monitor the impact of new and reuse projects in West Alameda
- Work with the City and others to implement the Strategic Economic Development Plan, including parking plan, catalyst project, retail vacancy reports and business attraction strategies

- Organize a Wine & Dine event in Spring 2018, which promotes businesses from a variety of West Alameda restaurants, Spirits Alley businesses, and other businesses from the Webster Business District
- Participate with local organizations for future events in West Alameda as opportunities arise

MARKETING AND PUBLIC RELATIONS

- Generate favorable publicity about West Alameda
- Promote events and members through local media, email distribution, and flyers
- Maintain contact with key representatives for local and regional media to distribute information about Webster Street District and West Alameda
- Update and distribute marketing literature promoting West Alameda businesses
- Continue to implement strategic marketing plan, including branding strategy, website, weekly columns, calendar of events, cooperative advertising program, social media marketing, and business attraction strategy
- Work with local residents, businesses and Alameda Police Department to promote neighborhood watch and crime prevention information

ORGANIZATION

- Continue to implement an enhanced maintenance program, through special clean-up events and through collaboration with City maintenance staff in resolving issues such as illegal dumping, littering and other public health hazards
- Manage the administrative activities of the organization
- Expand community and business participation with WABA
- Recruit members from outside the BIA and among area residents
- Distribute information door-to-door along the Webster Street District
- Involve important neighbors, e.g. College of Alameda, Marina Village, Alameda
 Point, and Cardinal Point in WABA's activities

CONCLUSION

WABA would like to thank the Alameda City Council, City Attorney, Development Services, Public Works, Planning and Finance Departments for their assistance in implementing the BIA.

Please visit the WABA website, www.westalamedabusiness.com, to see the many ways WABA promotes the West End. The BIA is a valuable tool in our continuing efforts to revitalize West Alameda's historic business district.
