

Photos of Construction at Jean Sweeney Open Space Park

Overall site grading and utility installation are complete.

Future playground area with concrete curbing and restroom.

Building the stone seatwall at the top of the playground hill.

Seatwall completed with playground concrete areas near completion below.

Playground parts being delivered

Logs from Franklin Park trees that were cut down for safety reasons and will be placed in playground area and around trees.

Concrete forming for Rotary Picnic Pavilion with pavilion parts on right side.

Concrete forming for curbs in playground area with sliding hill seen in the background.

Grading the parking lot area.

Grading complete for parking lot and ready for compaction testing.