DRAFT REQUEST FOR PROPOSALS (RFP)

For

CULTURAL ARTS AND ARTS PROGRAMMING

For The

CITY OF ALAMEDA

Due Date: September 12, 2018

OVERVIEW

The City of Alameda would like to invite arts organizations to submit their proposals to create publicly accessible cultural arts or arts programming for the Alameda community. These services would be provided through a grant award from the City of Alameda, and will be funded through the Alameda Public Art fund. There is a total of $20,000 available, to be distributed in grants of up to $5,000. A maximum of eight grants will be awarded.

Background

The City of Alameda, incorporated in April 1854, is a 22.7 square-mile island city located in the San Francisco Bay. Alameda has a population of 79,928. Alameda has an active and enthusiastic arts and culture community that is interested in partnering with City government to promote a variety of art forms throughout the community. The Community Development Department (CDD) encourages the advancement of local arts and culture to create a unique sense of place, and a more livable and economically vibrant city.

In 2003, the City of Alameda City Council adopted a Public Art Ordinance to require the installation of publicly accessible art on-site in certain new and substantially rehabilitated development projects. In lieu of providing on-site art, developers may choose to make a monetary contribution equal in value to their on-site art requirement into the City's Public Art Fund. The Fund, also established by the aforementioned Ordinance, is to be used for physical art and/or cultural arts and arts programming to benefit the community.

Objectives

The objective of the City of Alameda, in issuing this RFP, is to identify qualified arts organizations that have the ability to provide cultural arts and arts programming in public places in Alameda. Public art should result in broad community benefit by enhancing the city's image and sense of place, contributing to economic vitality, and improving the community's exposure to arts.

Art Requirements

Cultural arts or arts programming may include, but is not limited to: performance arts: theatre, dance, music; literary arts: poetry reading and storytelling; film and video; screenings and installations; education; art lectures and presentations; Special events: festivals and celebrations; and artist-in-residence programs in the arts. Cultural arts or arts programming must be accessible to the public at no charge, and located in the City of Alameda. Only non-profit organizations or public agencies are eligible to apply for the cultural arts or arts programming funding.

All cultural arts or arts programming must be located in the City of Alameda. Although all arts organizations and public agencies are eligible, local organizations are particularly encouraged to propose, and will receive a point preference as part of the evaluation process. See the Selection Criteria section for more information.

Budget

There is a total of $20,000 available, to be distributed in grants of up to $5,000. A maximum of eight grants will be awarded.

These amounts include all materials related to the production of the proposed programming; artistic and administrative personnel salaries, wages, and/or fees; materials related to the rehearsal or necessary rental space; general office supplies related to the project; liability and insurance costs as required; and marketing, promotion and publicity expenses. It does not include the cost of any activities occurring outside of Alameda; social functions, parties, receptions and/or fundraisers; food and beverages; and out-of-state travel.

All applications must include a mandatory 10% contingency as part of their budget.

PROPOSAL REQUIREMENTS

The following are to be submitted via CaFE (www.callforentry.org).

Once an account is created, the RFP can be accessed at: to be determined.

Once an account is created, the RFP can be accessed at: to be determined.

SELECTION PROCESS

1. All applications will be pre-screened by City staff to ensure that they meet the minimum qualifications:
 - a. Includes all of the elements listed in the “Proposal Requirement” section.
 - b. Proposing organization is a non-profit or public agency.
 - c. Proposed cultural arts event will be free of charge to general public, and located within the City of Alameda.
2. The Cultural Arts and Arts Programming Selection Panel will conduct an initial review of applications meeting the minimum requirements, and develop clarifying questions for each application (if any). Applicants will then have one week to submit written responses to the questions.
3. The Selection Panel will then rank each application (including responses to questions) according to the selection criteria outlined below. Applications scoring 65 or above will be recommended to the Public Art Commission as finalists.
4. The Public Art Commission will review the recommended finalists, and make a recommendation to City Council for the allocation of funds. Or, if funds have already been allocated by Council, the PAC will make the award.
