

Proposal from Commissioner Reid

Discussion to change language from:

d. A person who makes more than two (2) complaints in one (1) 12-month period that are determined by the Commission to be unfounded shall be prohibited from making a complaint for the next five (5) years.

To:

d. A person who makes more than (5) complaints in one (1) 12-month period that are determined by the Commission to be unfounded shall be prohibited from making a complaint for the next five (5) years.

Also- Open for discussion with commissioners:

How can the public communicate with Board members and Commissioners?
By what time is the correspondence recorded in the record? 5PM?
Should the City website state hours of operation on each Board/Commission page?
During Public Comment--should there be a point/counterpoint opportunity?
Should the Applicant be present on screen during a Board/Commission deliberation over an Agenda item?
Do Boards/Commissions receive an orientation and manual of procedures, responsibilities etc?
Do Boards/Commissions know if there are requirements within the Board/Commission?
Re: Zoom, should the screen show # of participants? Should the comment section be open? When would it be appropriate?
Re: Public Comment, if less than 4 speakers, is 3 minutes allowed at all meetings?
Should the OGC establish a Brown Act subcommittee to work together with the public re: Brown Act + Sunshine Ordinance?
Should the OGC page state information on how to request California Public Records Act Requests and FOIA requests?
Should the OGC serve as advocates to assist others in requesting Public Records?
Should the OGC create a discovery list on where to find information?
Should the OGC website list most commonly requested info each month?
Should the OGC have their own separate attorney? How does the OGC know when an attorney has been hired?
Should all Complaints be seen by the OGC?
Should the OGC create instructional videos that could assist the public and be posted online?

Should the Agendas have a hyperlink to Zoom?
Should Zoom meetings show number of participants online?
